CURFEW ORDINANCE
ROUND VALLEY INDIAN TRIBES

CURFEW ESTABLISHED

It shall be unlawful for any minor, without good cause, to be on any street, road, highway, alley, or any other public place on the Round Valley Indian Reservation between the hours of 11:00 PM and 5:00 AM without the permission of the minors parent or guardian, unless accompanied by a parent or guardian or an adult eighteen (18) years of age or older who has been given permission by the parent or guardian to accompany the minor.

Said permission shall be for good cause. Example: traveling to and from a sporting event or after school activities.

GAURDIAN DEFINED

A guardian is a person who is over the age of eighteen (18) years of age and has either permanent or temporary custody of the minor, either granted by the minor's parent(s) or at the direction of the court.

MINOR DEFINED

A minor for the purpose of this ordinance shall be a person who has not reached his/her eighteenth (18th) birthday.

PENALTY FOR CURFEW VIOLATION

A minor found to be in violation of the Curfew Ordinance shall be cited by Tribal Police to appear with their parent/guardian before a community Juvenile Review Board. They will review the incident and reach a decision to resolve the issue. The Juvenile Review Board will report all decisions to Round Valley Indian Tribes Tribal Council.

The first (1st) violation will result in five (5) hours community service.

The second (2nd) violation will result in ten (10) hours community service.

The third (3rd) violation will result in ten (10) additional hours and mediation/counseling for both the juvenile and parent/guardian.

Failure to comply with community service or counseling at the direction of the Juvenile Review Board could result in withholding of Tribal services, for both the parent and juvenile, until compliance is met. Appeals pertaining to Juvenile Review Board decisions shall be appealed to Round Valley Indian Tribes Tribal Council.

REVIEW BOARD DEFINED

The Juvenile Review Board will consist of no less than five community members at large and no more than seven community members at large, who will meet monthly to hear curfew violations.
